

Submitter:

Joe Douglas

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB3075

This bill is unconstitutional and does nothing to prevent gun crimes. It also puts a financial burden on lower income people who are legally purchasing a firearm. Why do all the new laws only affect law abiding citizens and not the criminals? There is no infrastructure in place or funded to support this bill. How about some stiffer laws and penalties that punish the criminals convicted of gun crimes?