

Submitter:

Jeff Miller

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB3075

I am a retired detective and was in Law Enforcement for over 30 years. There is nothing in 114 or HB3075 that would make Oregon safer. Bad guy don't care about gun restrictions they already can not purchase or even posses a firearm legally. They don't care. Especially when it comes to hi-cap magazines. A criminal is not going go restrict or purchase 10 round mags. In my career people that have gone out and taken the time to get a firearm and complete the current paperwork don't jeopardize the ability to have it. In final, criminals don't care. There are already many laws , such as assault or murder. Taking away honest citizen rights does not change the ability if a criminal wants to hurt you, they will...