

Submitter: Joshua Johnson

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3075

In this country we are innocent until proven guilty and as a law-abiding citizen who legally possesses firearms and ammunition, the notion that I would need to prove that I purchased high capacity magazines prior to the ban or be in violation of the law is unacceptable.

The burden of proof lies with the accusing party; not the accused.