It is vital that you keep the 72 hour wait period in this Bill. A brilliant young lady is no longer with us, who perhaps would have really benefited by that wait period. She was engaged to a fine young man. She was a graduate of MIT Engineering program. She had a wonderful job, and had been newly and happily promoted. So why did she walk into a gun store, and purchase a gun, and go under an underpass and literally blow out her brains? Her parents, all the family members, and my precious Grandson.....her fiance, will never know. It seemed so spur of the moment, with no indication ahead of time.

There are many stories, but this one is very personal to many. We still need her here with us.

Thanks for making all this work. The gunindustry is very powerful and very active. They should not be making money on tragedy!

Thank you for taking years to hlep witih this problem.
