5 SECTION 2. ORS 137.105 is amended to read:

6 137.105. (1) The trial court retains authority during the pendency of an appeal to determine restitution and to enter a
7 supplemental judgment specifying the amount and terms of restitution or an order denying restitution. New sentence
8 using the new term.

9 (2) If the trial court enters a supplemental judgment or an order under subsection (1) of this section during the 10 pendency of an appeal, the trial court administrator shall immediately provide a copy of the supplemental judgment or the 11 order to the appellate court.

12 SECTION 3. ORS 137.106 is amended to read:

13 137.106. (1)(a) Except as provided in subsection (8) of this section, when a person is convicted of a crime, or a violation as
14 described in ORS 153.008, that has resulted in economic damages, the district attorney shall investigate and present to the 15 court, at the time of sentencing or as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, evidence of the nature and amount of the 16 damages.

17 (b)(A) If the district attorney is unable to present restitution evidence at sentencing, within 90 days after sentencing the 18 district attorney may file a motion requesting that either the judgment be amended to require restitution or that a sup-
19 plemental judgment be entered requiring restitution. The court may extend the time by which the district attorney must file
20 the motion for good cause. The motion must contain a statement that documentation supporting the requested amount of 21 restitution has been provided to the defendant as described in subsection (7) of this section.

22 (B) Upon receipt of a motion described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, the court shall set a hearing. If the 23 defendant objects to the motion, the objection must be filed at least 15 days prior to the hearing and must contain a description
24 of the nature of the objection.

25 (C) If the parties stipulate to the order and amount of restitution, the court may cancel the hearing and amend the 26 judgment or enter a supplemental judgment requiring the defendant to pay the stipulated amount of restitution.

27 (D) New sub-paragraph using the new term.

28 (c) At a restitution proceeding, economic damages will be presumed reasonable if the damages are documented in the 29 form of a record, bill, estimate or invoice from a business, health care entity or provider or public body as defined in ORS
30 174.109.

31 (2)(a) If the court finds from the evidence presented that a victim suffered economic damages, in addition to any other
32 sanction it may impose, the court shall enter a judgment or supplemental judgment requiring that the defendant pay the 33 victim restitution in a specific amount that equals the full amount of the victim's economic damages as determined by the 34 court. The lien, priority of the lien and ability to enforce the specific amount of restitution established under this paragraph by 35 a supplemental judgment relates back to the date of the original judgment that is supplemented.

36 (b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection, a court may order that the defendant pay the victim restitution in a
37 specific amount that is less than the full amount of the victim's economic damages only if:

38 (A) The victim or, if the victim is an estate, successor in interest, trust or other entity, an authorized representative of 39 the victim consents to the lesser amount, if the conviction is not for a person felony; or

40 (B) The victim or, if the victim is an estate, successor in interest, trust or other entity, an authorized representative of the 41 victim consents in writing to the lesser amount, if the conviction is for a person felony.

42 (c) As used in this subsection, "person felony" has the meaning given that term in the rules of the Oregon Criminal 43 Justice Commission.

44 (3) After the district attorney makes a presentation described in subsection (1) of this section, if the court is unable to
45 find from the evidence presented that a victim suffered economic damages, the court shall make a finding on the record to

1 that effect.

2 (4) No finding made by the court or failure of the court to make a finding under this section limits or impairs the rights
3 of a person injured to sue and recover damages in a civil action as provided in ORS 137.109.

4 (5)(a) If a judgment or supplemental judgment described in subsection (1) of this section includes restitution, a court may
5 delay the enforcement of the monetary sanctions, including restitution, only if the defendant alleges and establishes to the
6 satisfaction of the court the defendant's inability to pay the judgment in full at the time the judgment is entered. If the court
7 finds that the defendant is unable to pay, the court may establish or allow an appropriate supervising authority to establish a
8 payment schedule, taking into consideration the financial resources of the defendant and the burden that payment of 9 restitution will impose, with due regard to the other obligations of the defendant. The supervising authority shall be autho-
10 rized to modify any payment schedule established under this section.

11 (b) As used in this subsection, "supervising authority" means any state or local agency that is authorized to supervise the 12 defendant.

13 (6) If the defendant objects to the imposition, amount or distribution of the restitution, the court shall allow the
14 defendant to be heard on such issue at the time of sentencing or at the time the court determines the amount of restitution.

15 [~~(7)(a)~~ At least 10 days prior to the presentation described in subsection (1) of this section, the district attorney shall:]

16 [(A) Disclose to the defendant the names of any witnesses that may be called during the presentation; and]

17 [(B) Provide the defendant with copies of, or allow the defendant to inspect, any exhibits that will be used or introduced
18 during the presentation.]

19 [(b) If the court finds that the district attorney has violated the requirements of this subsection, the court shall grant a
20 continuance to allow additional time for preparation upon request of the defendant. Any additional time granted under this
21 paragraph may not count toward the 90-day time limitation described in subsection (1) of this section.]

22 [(8)] (7) A victim that is an insurance carrier may direct the district attorney not to seek restitution for damages incurred
23 by the insurance carrier by notifying the district attorney of the insurance carrier's intent to sue and recover damages from 24 the defendant in a civil action. An insurance carrier that does not direct the district attorney not to seek restitution under this
25 subsection agrees that 50 percent of awards of restitution ordered to the insurance carrier shall be paid to the Department of 26 Justice as provided in ORS 137.102.

27 SECTION 4. ORS 137.107 is amended to read:

28 137.107. At any time after entry of a judgment upon conviction of a crime, the court may amend that part of the 29 judgment relating to restitution if, in the original judgment, the court included language imposing, recommending or requir-
30 ing restitution but failed to conform the judgment to the requirements of ORS 18.048 or any other law governing the form of 31 judgments in effect before January 1, 2004. New sentence using the new term.

32 SECTION 5. ORS 137.108 is amended to read:

33 137.108. (1) When a person has entered into a driving while under the influence of intoxicants diversion agreement and
34 the person's actions resulted in economic damages, the district attorney shall investigate and present to the court within 90
35 days of when the diversion agreement is entered, evidence of the nature and amount of the damages. If the court finds from 36 the evidence presented that a victim suffered economic damages, the court shall order the defendant to pay restitution and 37 include in the diversion agreement one of the following:

38 (a) A requirement that the defendant pay the victim restitution in a specific amount that equals the full amount of the 39 victim's economic damages as determined by the court.

40 (b) A requirement that the defendant pay the victim restitution in a specific amount that is less than the full amount of 41 the victim's economic damages, with the consent of the victim.

42 (c) New paragraph using the new term.

43 (2) After the district attorney makes a presentation described in subsection (1) of this section, if the court is unable to
44 find from the evidence presented that a victim suffered economic damages, the court shall make a finding on the record to
45 that effect.

1 (3) A finding made by the court under this section, or a failure of the court to make a finding, does not limit or impair the
2 right of a person injured to sue and recover damages in a civil action as provided in ORS 137.109.

3 (4) If the defendant objects to the imposition, amount or distribution of the restitution, the court shall allow the
4 defendant to be heard on such issue at the time the court determines the amount of restitution.

5 *[(5) As used in this section, "victim" includes any person the court determines has suffered economic damages as a result
6 of the act that has brought the defendant before the court for the purpose of entering into a driving while under the 7 influence of intoxicants diversion agreement.]*

8 SECTION 6. ORS 137.109 is amended to read:

9 137.109. (1) Nothing in ORS 137.103 to 137.109, 137.540, 144.102, 144.275, 161.675 and 161.685 limits or impairs the right
10 of a person injured by a defendant's commission of a crime, by a defendant's commission of a violation described in ORS
11 153.008, or by a defendant's commission of an act that has brought the defendant before the court for the purpose of 12 entering into a driving while under the influence of intoxicants diversion agreement, to sue and recover damages from the 13 defendant in a civil action. Evidence that the defendant has paid or been ordered to pay restitution pursuant to ORS 137.103
14 to 137.109, 137.540, 144.102, 144.275, 161.675 and 161.685 may not be introduced in any civil action arising out of the facts or 15 events that were the basis for the restitution. However, the court shall credit any restitution paid by the defendant to a victim,
16 or paid to the Department of Justice under ORS 137.102, against any judgment in favor of the victim in such civil action.

17 (2) If conviction in a criminal trial necessarily decides the issue of a defendant's liability for economic damages of a
18 victim, that issue is conclusively determined as to the defendant if it is involved in a subsequent civil action.

19 (3) New subsection using the new term.

20 SECTION 7. Section 8 of this 2026 Act is added to and made a part of ORS 137.101 to 137.109.
