BACKGROUND:

The Public Employees Retirement System (PERS) provides retirement benefits for approximately 900 state agencies and units of local government, including public schools, community colleges, cities, and counties. PERS is overseen by a five-member board that appoints an executive director to manage the agency's daily operations, including the management of benefits for more than 390,000 active, inactive, and retired members and beneficiaries. PERS members are in one of three plans, depending on when they first became a member: Tier One, Tier Two, and the Oregon Public Service Retirement Plan (OPSRP). PERS members who work in positions that meet the definitions for "police officer" and "firefighter" are eligible for special benefit provisions, such as retiring at an earlier age and calculating their retirement benefit with a higher statutory factor.

In 2024, House Bill 4045, in part, added forensic scientists and evidence technicians employed by the Department of State Police, and district attorneys to the definition of "police officer" for purposes of PERS.
