The Act also raises the dollar amounts in the elements of some crimes. (Flesch Readability Score: 61.3).]

[Directs the Department of Justice to study whether legislative changes are needed concerning credit for time served and post-conviction relief petitions based on nonunanimous jury verdicts. Directs the department to submit findings to the interim committees of the Legislative Assembly related to the judiciary no later than September 15, 2027. Sunsets on January 2, 2028.]

[Removes the requirement that the state consent to the entry of a conditional plea of guilty or no contest.]

[Authorizes the court to enter a judgment of conviction for a Class A violation instead of a misdemeanor in specified circumstances.]

Increases the crime category, for the sentencing guidelines grid of the Oregon Criminal Justice Commission, for felony fleeing or attempting to elude a police officer when the defendant has a prior conviction or causes injury.

Establishes a final time period for any person to file a petition for post-conviction relief based on a nonunanimous jury verdict.

Creates a procedure by which the Department of Corrections or the state can petition the sentencing court, after determining that a person was released from department custody as the result of a material error in sentence computation or legal interpretation, for a determination as to whether the person is subject to further incarceration. Provides for a process for requesting and ordering that the person be held or taken into custody pending the hearing.

Requires the Department of Corrections to provide notice to specified persons after performing certain sentence recomputations that result in a new projected release date. Limits how presentence incarceration credit may be applied in specified circumstances.

Authorizes the Department of Corrections to grant an additional 120 days of short-term transitional leave to certain persons released from custody due to a material error in sentence computation or legal interpretation concerning presentence incarceration credits.

22 138.510. (1) Except as otherwise provided in ORS 138.540, any person convicted of a crime under 23 the laws of this state may file a petition for post-conviction relief pursuant to ORS 138.510 to 24 138.680.

25 (2) A petition for post-conviction relief may be filed by one person on behalf of another person 26 who has been convicted of aggravated murder and sentenced to death only if the person filing the 27 petition demonstrates by a preponderance of the evidence that:

28 (a) The person sentenced to death is unable to file a petition on the person's own behalf due to 29 mental incapacity or because of a lack of access to the court; and

30 (b) The person filing the petition has a significant relationship with the person sentenced to 31 death and will act in the best interest of the person on whose behalf the petition is being filed.

32 (3) A petition pursuant to ORS 138.510 to 138.680 must be filed within two years of the following,
33 unless the court on hearing a subsequent petition finds grounds for relief asserted which could not 34 reasonably have been raised in the original or amended petition:

35 (a) If no appeal is taken, the date the judgment or order on the conviction was entered in the 36 register.

37 (b) If an appeal is taken, the date the appeal is final in the Oregon appellate courts.

38 (c) If a petition for certiorari to the United States Supreme Court is filed, the later of:

39 (A) The date of denial of certiorari, if the petition is denied; or

40 (B) The date of entry of a final state court judgment following remand from the United States
41 Supreme Court.

42 (4) A one-year filing period shall apply retroactively to petitions filed by persons whose con-
43 victions and appeals became final before August 5, 1989, and any such petitions must be filed within 44 one year after November 4, 1993. A person whose post-conviction petition was dismissed prior to 45 November 4, 1993, cannot file another post-conviction petition involving the same case.

1 (5) The remedy created by ORS 138.510 to 138.680 is available to persons convicted before May 2 26, 1959.

3 (6) In any post-conviction proceeding pending in the courts of this state on May 26, 1959, the 4 person seeking relief in such proceedings shall be allowed to amend the action and seek relief under 5 ORS 138.510 to 138.680. If such person does not choose to amend the action in this manner, the law
6 existing prior to May 26, 1959, shall govern the case.

7 (7) A petition for post-conviction relief under ORS 138.510 to 138.680 claiming, as grounds
8 for relief, that the person was convicted of a criminal offense as the result of a nonunani-
9 mous jury verdict, must be filed by no later than 120 days after the effective date of this 2026
10 Act.

11 SECTION 6. (1)(a) This section applies to petitions for post-conviction relief under ORS
12 138.510 to 138.680 claiming, as grounds for relief, that the person was convicted of a criminal 13 offense as the result of a nonunanimous jury verdict, filed on or after the effective date of 14 this 2026 Act.

15 (b) A person may not file a petition for post-conviction relief under this section if the 16 person previously filed a petition under ORS 138.510 to 138.680 or section 1, chapter 368,
17 Oregon Laws 2023, claiming, as grounds for relief, that the person was convicted of a crimi-
18 nal offense as the result of a nonunanimous jury verdict.

19 (2) ORS 138.550 does not apply to petitions for post-conviction relief described in this 20 section.

21 (3)(a) Notwithstanding ORS 138.530, in a post-conviction relief proceeding claiming, as 22 grounds for relief, that the person was convicted of a criminal offense as the result of a 23 nonunanimous jury verdict, the petitioner has the burden of proving, by a preponderance of 24 the evidence, that the conviction resulted from a nonunanimous jury verdict.

25 (b) Evidence that a jury verdict was nonunanimous is limited to:

26 (A) A verdict form;

27 (B) A written jury poll;

28 (C) An audio or video recording of the trial; or 29 (D) A transcript of the trial.

30 (c) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this subsection, if a recording or transcript of the 31 trial reflects that the jury was polled after issuing the verdict, but either does not indicate 32 or is ambiguous concerning whether the verdict was unanimous, the court may order a re-33 view in camera of the file of the district attorney, the defense attorney or the court, relating 34 to the underlying conviction, and may consider any evidence concerning the jury's verdict
35 within the file or files that the court determines to be credible.

36 (4) Notwithstanding ORS 138.520, if post-conviction relief is granted under this section, 37 the court shall vacate the judgment as to the specific conviction that resulted from the 38 nonunanimous jury verdict, or grant such other relief as stipulated by the parties.

39 (5) If a judgment of conviction is vacated on the grounds that the person was convicted
40 of a criminal offense as the result of a nonunanimous jury verdict, upon retrial, if the trial
41 court determines that evidence other than witness testimony that was previously admitted 42 during the trial that resulted in the nonunanimous guilty verdict is unavailable because the 43 evidence was lawfully destroyed or otherwise rendered unavailable through no fault of the 44 state or the defendant, or that the evidence is unavailable despite reasonable efforts to pre-45 serve the evidence:

1 (a) The state may present in the state's case in chief or rebuttal case, and the defendant
2 may present in the defendant's case in chief, a transcript or portion thereof, a recording of 3 the prior proceeding or portion thereof, or any other previously admitted exhibit, concerning 4 the unavailable evidence from the previous trial.

5 (b) The court shall instruct the jury:

6 (A) That the evidence is unavailable;

7 (B) That the jury may not attribute the unavailability to the state or the defendant, or 8 fault either party for failing to produce the unavailable evidence; and 9 (C) That the jury may not speculate as to why the evidence is unavailable.

10 (c) The court may not instruct the jury pursuant to ORS 10.095 (7) or (8) regarding the 11 transcripts, recordings of the prior proceeding or exhibits described in paragraph (a) of this 12 subsection.

13 (6) Except as otherwise provided in this section, all provisions of ORS 138.510 to 138.680
14 apply to petitions for post-conviction relief described in this section.

15 (7) As used in this section, "conviction" includes a finding of guilty except for insanity.

16
17 SENTENCING RECALCULATIONS

18
19 SECTION 7. (1)(a) If the Department of Corrections determines that a person was re-
20 leased from the custody of the department as a result of a material error in sentence com-21 putation or legal interpretation, the department shall petition the sentencing court for an 22 order determining whether the person is lawfully subject to further incarceration.

23 (b) A petition described in this subsection shall be filed at the time the determination 24 described in paragraph (a) of this subsection is made.

25 (c) The petition must state with particularity the nature of the alleged error and the le-
26 gal basis for asserting that the sentence imposed by the court has not been fully served, and 27 must be supported by an affidavit or declaration.

28 (2)(a) If the state determines that a person was released from the custody of the de-29 partment as a result of a material error in sentence computation or legal interpretation, the 30 state may petition the sentencing court for an order determining whether the person is 31 lawfully subject to further incarceration.

32 (b) If the state elects to file a petition under this subsection, the petition shall be filed
33 as soon as practicable after the determination described in paragraph (a) of this subsection 34 is made.

35 (c) The petition must state with particularity the nature of the alleged error and the le-
36 gal basis for asserting that the sentence imposed by the court has not been fully served, and 37 must be supported by an affidavit or declaration.

38 (3) The petitioner may accompany a petition described in subsection (1) or (2) of this 39 section with a motion for the arrest and detention of the person, or for the person to be held 40 in custody, pending the hearing.

41 (4)(a) Upon receipt of a petition described in subsection (1) or (2) of this section, the 42 court shall determine whether probable cause exists to support the claim that there was a 43 material error in sentence computation or legal interpretation as stated in the petition. Upon 44 making such a determination, the court shall:

45 (A) Schedule a hearing within five days, or as soon as practicable;

1 (B) Issue an order for the released person to appear;

2 (C) Order the petitioner to provide notice of the order to appear and hearing to the per-
3 son;

4 (D) Order the petitioner to provide notice of the order to appear and hearing to any vic-
5 tim who previously requested to be notified of sentencing matters; and

6 (E) Appoint counsel for the person, if the person is financially eligible and does not al-
7 ready have counsel.

8 (b) If the petition is accompanied by a motion described in subsection (3) of this section,
9 and the court makes the probable cause finding described in paragraph (a) of this subsection,
10 the court may order the arrest and detention of the person pending the hearing, or for the 11 person to be held in custody pending the hearing, if the court additionally determines, by 12 clear and convincing evidence, that such action is necessary for public safety. An order un-13 der this paragraph must state the factual basis for the court's findings.

14 (5)(a) At the hearing, the person has the right to be heard, to present evidence and to 15 contest the claims set forth in the petition. The person may not challenge the original sen-16 tence imposed, and may only challenge the claim presented in the petition asserting that the 17 person is subject to additional incarceration.

18 (b) After the hearing, the court may order the person recommitted to the legal and 19 physical custody of the department only if the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, 20 that:

21 (A) The person has not completed the sentence lawfully imposed by the court; and 22 (B) The person has more than 30 days remaining on the sentence originally imposed.

23 SECTION 8. Section 7 of this 2026 Act applies to persons whom the Department of Cor-
24 rections or the state has determined were released, on or after July 10, 2025, due to a ma-
25 terial error in sentence computation or legal interpretation.

26 SECTION 9. ORS 137.172 is amended to read:

27 137.172. (1) The trial court retains authority after entry of judgment of conviction or a supple-28 mental judgment, including during the pendency of an appeal, to modify the judgment, including the 29 sentence, to correct any arithmetic or clerical errors or to delete or modify any erroneous or am-
30 biguous term in the judgment. The court may correct the judgment either on the motion of one of 31 the parties or on the court's own motion after written notice to all of the parties.

32 (2)(a) Before modifying an ambiguous term in the judgment under subsection (1) of this
33 section:

34 (A) The court shall appoint counsel for the defendant, if the person is financially eligible 35 and does not already have counsel, unless the defendant waives counsel; and

36 (B) The court shall hold a hearing concerning the ambiguous term, unless the defendant 37 waives the hearing.

38 (b) If the court modifies an ambiguous term in the judgment under subsection (1) of this 39 section, the court may not modify the judgment to achieve a result that is unsupported by 40 the record from the original sentencing proceeding.

41 [(2)] (3) If the trial court enters a corrected judgment under this section during the pendency
42 of an appeal, the trial court administrator shall immediately provide a copy of the corrected judg-
43 ment to the appellate court.

44 SECTION 10. ORS 137.320 is amended to read:

45 137.320. (1) Except as provided in ORS 137.124, when a judgment includes commitment to the

1 legal and physical custody of the Department of Corrections, the sheriff shall deliver the defendant,
2 together with a copy of the entry of judgment and a statement signed by the sheriff of the number
3 of days the defendant was imprisoned prior to delivery, to the superintendent of the Department of 4 Corrections institution to which the defendant is initially assigned pursuant to ORS 137.124. If at 5 the time of entry of a judgment, the defendant was serving a term of incarceration at the direction
6 of the supervisory authority of a county upon conviction of a prior felony, the sheriff shall also de-
7 liver to the Department of Corrections a copy of the prior entry of judgment committing the de-8 fendant to the supervisory authority of the county of conviction and a statement of the number of 9 days the defendant has remaining to be served on the term or incarceration imposed in the prior 10 judgment.

11 (2) If the defendant is surrendered to another legal authority prior to delivery to an institution
12 of the Department of Corrections, the sheriff shall forward to the Department of Corrections copies 13 of the entry of all pertinent judgments, a statement of the number of days the defendant was 14 imprisoned prior to surrender, a statement of the number of days the defendant has remaining to 15 be served on any term of incarceration the defendant was serving at the direction of the supervisory 16 authority of a county upon conviction of a prior felony and an identification of the authority to 17 whom the prisoner was surrendered.

18 (3) Upon receipt of the information described in subsection (1) or (2) of this section, the De-
19 partment of Corrections shall establish a case file and compute the defendant's sentence in accord-
20 ance with the provisions of ORS 137.370.

21 (4) When the judgment is imprisonment in the county jail or a fine and that the defendant be 22 imprisoned until it is paid, the judgment shall be executed by the sheriff of the county. The sheriff
23 shall compute the time the defendant was imprisoned after arrest and prior to the commencement
24 of the term specified in the judgment. Such time shall be credited toward the term of the sentence.

25 (5)(a) Unless expressly ordered by the court within the judgment, when computing the 26 defendant's sentence in accordance with the provisions of ORS 137.370, the Department of 27 Corrections may not perform a sentence computation that results in more presentence 28 incarceration credit than the person actually served in custody, on the case for which the 29 sentence is being computed, prior to being committed to the custody of the department.

30 (b) If, during the pendency of the defendant's sentence, but after the initial 140 days after 31 the defendant's commitment to the custody of the department, the department recomputes
32 a presentence incarceration credit, and the recomputation results in a projected release date
33 that is different from a previously computed projected release date, prior to the defendant's 34 release the department shall provide written notice of the recomputation to:

35 (A) The sentencing court;

36 (B) The prosecuting attorney; and

37 (C) The defendant and the defendant's trial counsel.

38 (c) The written notice described in paragraph (b) of this subsection shall include the 39 previously computed release date, the new release date, an explanation for the recomputation
40 and a description of any efforts made by the department to notify any person who requested
41 notifications related to sentencing changes for the person.

42 (d) When the department recomputes a presentence incarceration credit and the recom-
43 putation results in a projected release date that is different from a previously computed 44 projected release date, the department shall provide the defendant with information con-
45 cerning the process by which the recomputation may be challenged.

1 SECTION 11. ORS 137.370 is amended to read:

2 137.370. (1) When a person is sentenced to imprisonment in the custody of the Department of 3 Corrections, the term of confinement therein commences from the day the person is delivered to the

6 (2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4) of this section, when a person is sentenced to 7 imprisonment in the custody of the Department of Corrections, for the purpose of computing the 8 amount of sentence served the term of confinement includes only:

9 (a) The time that the person is confined by any authority after the arrest for:

10 (A) The crime for which sentence is imposed;

11 (B) A lesser included or greater inclusive offense of the crime for which sentence was imposed;
