38 138.680.

39 “(2) A petition for post-conviction relief may be filed by one person on behalf of another person 40 who has been convicted of aggravated murder and sentenced to death only if the person filing the 41 petition demonstrates by a preponderance of the evidence that:

42 “(a) The person sentenced to death is unable to file a petition on the person’s own behalf due 43 to mental incapacity or because of a lack of access to the court; and 44 “(b) The person filing the petition has a significant relationship with the person sentenced to 45 death and will act in the best interest of the person on whose behalf the petition is being filed.

1 “(3) A petition pursuant to ORS 138.510 to 138.680 must be filed within two years of the fol-2 lowing, unless the court on hearing a subsequent petition finds grounds for relief asserted which 3 could not reasonably have been raised in the original or amended petition:

4 “(a) If no appeal is taken, the date the judgment or order on the conviction was entered in the 12 victions and appeals became final before August 5, 1989, and any such petitions must be filed within 13 one year after November 4, 1993. A person whose post-conviction petition was dismissed prior to 14 November 4, 1993, cannot file another post-conviction petition involving the same case.

15 “(5) The remedy created by ORS 138.510 to 138.680 is available to persons convicted before May 16 26, 1959.

17 “(6) In any post-conviction proceeding pending in the courts of this state on May 26, 1959, the 18 person seeking relief in such proceedings shall be allowed to amend the action and seek relief under 19 ORS 138.510 to 138.680. If such person does not choose to amend the action in this manner, the law 20 existing prior to May 26, 1959, shall govern the case.

21 “(7) A petition for post-conviction relief under ORS 138.510 to 138.680 claiming, as grounds 22 for relief, that the person was convicted of a criminal offense as the result of a nonunani- 23 mous jury verdict, must be filed by no later than 120 days after the effective date of this 2026
24 Act.

25 “SECTION 6. (1)(a) This section applies to petitions for post-conviction relief under ORS 26 138.510 to 138.680 claiming, as grounds for relief, that the person was convicted of a criminal 27 offense as the result of a nonunanimous jury verdict, filed on or after the effective date of 28 this 2026 Act.

29 “(b) A person may not file a petition for post-conviction relief under this section if the 30 person previously filed a petition under ORS 138.510 to 138.680 or section 1, chapter 368, 31 Oregon Laws 2023, claiming, as grounds for relief, that the person was convicted of a crimi-
32 nal offense as the result of a nonunanimous jury verdict.

33 “(2) ORS 138.550 does not apply to petitions for post-conviction relief described in this 34 section.

35 “(3)(a) Notwithstanding ORS 138.530, in a post-conviction relief proceeding claiming, as 36 grounds for relief, that the person was convicted of a criminal offense as the result of a 37 nonunanimous jury verdict, the petitioner has the burden of proving, by a preponderance of 38 the evidence, that the conviction resulted from a nonunanimous jury verdict.

39 “(b) Evidence that a jury verdict was nonunanimous is limited to:

40 “(A) A verdict form;

41 “(B) A written jury poll;

42 “(C) An audio or video recording of the trial; or 43 “(D) A transcript of the trial.

44 “(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this subsection, if a recording or transcript of the 45 trial reflects that the jury was polled after issuing the verdict, but either does not indicate

1 or is ambiguous concerning whether the verdict was unanimous, the court may order a re-2 view in camera of the file of the district attorney, the defense attorney or the court, relating 3 to the underlying conviction, and may consider any evidence concerning the jury's verdict 4 within the file or files that the court determines to be credible.

5 “(4) Notwithstanding ORS 138.520, if post-conviction relief is granted under this section, 6 the court shall vacate the judgment as to the specific conviction that resulted from the 7 nonunanimous jury verdict, or grant such other relief as stipulated by the parties.

8 “(5) If a judgment of conviction is vacated on the grounds that the person was convicted 9 of a criminal offense as the result of a nonunanimous jury verdict, upon retrial, if the trial 10 court determines that evidence other than witness testimony that was previously admitted 11 during the trial that resulted in the nonunanimous guilty verdict is unavailable because the 12 evidence was lawfully destroyed or otherwise rendered unavailable through no fault of the 13 state or the defendant, or that the evidence is unavailable despite reasonable efforts to pre-14 serve the evidence:

15 “(a) The state may present in the state's case in chief or rebuttal case, and the defendant 16 may present in the defendant's case in chief, a transcript or portion thereof, a recording of 17 the prior proceeding or portion thereof, or any other previously admitted exhibit, concerning 18 the unavailable evidence from the previous trial.

19 “(b) The court shall instruct the jury:

20 “(A) That the evidence is unavailable;

21 “(B) That the jury may not attribute the unavailability to the state or the defendant, or 22 fault either party for failing to produce the unavailable evidence; and 23 “(C) That the jury may not speculate as to why the evidence is unavailable.

24 “(c) The court may not instruct the jury pursuant to ORS 10.095 (7) or (8) regarding the 25 transcripts, recordings of the prior proceeding or exhibits described in paragraph (a) of this 26 subsection.

27 “(6) Except as otherwise provided in this section, all provisions of ORS 138.510 to 138.680 28 apply to petitions for post-conviction relief described in this section.

29 “(7) As used in this section, ‘conviction’ includes a finding of guilty except for insanity.

30 31 “SENTENCING RECALCULATIONS

32
33 “SECTION 7. (1)(a) If the Department of Corrections determines that a person was re-34 leased from the custody of the department as a result of a material error in sentence com-35 putation or legal interpretation, the department shall petition the sentencing court for an 36 order determining whether the person is lawfully subject to further incarceration.

37 “(b) A petition described in this subsection shall be filed at the time the determination 38 described in paragraph (a) of this subsection is made.

39 “(c) The petition must state with particularity the nature of the alleged error and the 40 legal basis for asserting that the sentence imposed by the court has not been fully served, 41 and must be supported by an affidavit or declaration.

42 “(2)(a) If the state determines that a person was released from the custody of the de-43 partment as a result of a material error in sentence computation or legal interpretation, the 44 state may petition the sentencing court for an order determining whether the person is 45 lawfully subject to further incarceration.

1 “(b) If the state elects to file a petition under this subsection, the petition shall be filed 2 as soon as practicable after the determination described in paragraph (a) of this subsection 3 is made.

4 “(c) The petition must state with particularity the nature of the alleged error and the 5 legal basis for asserting that the sentence imposed by the court has not been fully served,
6 and must be supported by an affidavit or declaration.

7 “(3) The petitioner may accompany a petition described in subsection (1) or (2) of this 8 section with a motion for the arrest and detention of the person, or for the person to be held 9 in custody, pending the hearing.

10 “(4)(a) Upon receipt of a petition described in subsection (1) or (2) of this section, the 11 court shall determine whether probable cause exists to support the claim that there was a 12 material error in sentence computation or legal interpretation as stated in the petition. Upon 13 making such a determination, the court shall:

14 “(A) Schedule a hearing within five days, or as soon as practicable;

15 “(B) Issue an order for the released person to appear;

16 “(C) Order the petitioner to provide notice of the order to appear and hearing to the 17 person;

18 “(D) Order the petitioner to provide notice of the order to appear and hearing to any 19 victim who previously requested to be notified of sentencing matters; and 20 “(E) Appoint counsel for the person, if the person is financially eligible and does not al-21 ready have counsel.

22 “(b) If the petition is accompanied by a motion described in subsection (3) of this section, 23 and the court makes the probable cause finding described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, 24 the court may order the arrest and detention of the person pending the hearing, or for the 25 person to be held in custody pending the hearing, if the court additionally determines, by 26 clear and convincing evidence, that such action is necessary for public safety. An order un-27 der this paragraph must state the factual basis for the court’s findings.

28 “(5)(a) At the hearing, the person has the right to be heard, to present evidence and to 29 contest the claims set forth in the petition. The person may not challenge the original sen-30 tence imposed, and may only challenge the claim presented in the petition asserting that the 31 person is subject to additional incarceration.

32 “(b) After the hearing, the court may order the person recommitted to the legal and 33 physical custody of the department only if the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, 34 that:

35 “(A) The person has not completed the sentence lawfully imposed by the court; and 36 “(B) The person has more than 30 days remaining on the sentence originally imposed.

37 “SECTION 8. Section 7 of this 2026 Act applies to persons whom the Department of 38 Corrections or the state has determined were released, on or after July 10, 2025, due to a 39 material error in sentence computation or legal interpretation.

40 “SECTION 9. ORS 137.172 is amended to read:

41 “137.172. (1) The trial court retains authority after entry of judgment of conviction or a sup-42 plemental judgment, including during the pendency of an appeal, to modify the judgment, including 43 the sentence, to correct any arithmetic or clerical errors or to delete or modify any erroneous or 44 ambiguous term in the judgment. The court may correct the judgment either on the motion of one 45 of the parties or on the court’s own motion after written notice to all of the parties.

1 “(2)(a) Before modifying an ambiguous term in the judgment under subsection (1) of this 2 section:

3 “(A) The court shall appoint counsel for the defendant, if the person is financially eligible 4 and does not already have counsel, unless the defendant waives counsel; and 5 “(B) The court shall hold a hearing concerning the ambiguous term, unless the defendant 6 waives the hearing.

7 “(b) If the court modifies an ambiguous term in the judgment under subsection (1) of this 8 section, the court may not modify the judgment to achieve a result that is unsupported by 9 the record from the original sentencing proceeding.

10 “[(2)] (3) If the trial court enters a corrected judgment under this section during the pendency 11 of an appeal, the trial court administrator shall immediately provide a copy of the corrected judg-12 ment to the appellate court.

13 “SECTION 10. ORS 137.320 is amended to read:

14 “137.320. (1) Except as provided in ORS 137.124, when a judgment includes commitment to the 15 legal and physical custody of the Department of Corrections, the sheriff shall deliver the defendant, 16 together with a copy of the entry of judgment and a statement signed by the sheriff of the number 17 of days the defendant was imprisoned prior to delivery, to the superintendent of the Department of 18 Corrections institution to which the defendant is initially assigned pursuant to ORS 137.124. If at 19 the time of entry of a judgment, the defendant was serving a term of incarceration at the direction 20 of the supervisory authority of a county upon conviction of a prior felony, the sheriff shall also de-21 liver to the Department of Corrections a copy of the prior entry of judgment committing the de-22 fendant to the supervisory authority of the county of conviction and a statement of the number of 23 days the defendant has remaining to be served on the term or incarceration imposed in the prior 24 judgment.

25 “(2) If the defendant is surrendered to another legal authority prior to delivery to an institution 26 of the Department of Corrections, the sheriff shall forward to the Department of Corrections copies 27 of the entry of all pertinent judgments, a statement of the number of days the defendant was 28 imprisoned prior to surrender, a statement of the number of days the defendant has remaining to 29 be served on any term of incarceration the defendant was serving at the direction of the supervisory 30 authority of a county upon conviction of a prior felony and an identification of the authority to 31 whom the prisoner was surrendered.

32 “(3) Upon receipt of the information described in subsection (1) or (2) of this section, the De-33 partment of Corrections shall establish a case file and compute the defendant’s sentence in accord-34 ance with the provisions of ORS 137.370.

35 “(4) When the judgment is imprisonment in the county jail or a fine and that the defendant be 36 imprisoned until it is paid, the judgment shall be executed by the sheriff of the county. The sheriff 37 shall compute the time the defendant was imprisoned after arrest and prior to the commencement 38 of the term specified in the judgment. Such time shall be credited toward the term of the sentence.

39 “(5)(a) Unless expressly ordered by the court within the judgment, when computing the 40 defendant’s sentence in accordance with the provisions of ORS 137.370, the Department of 41 Corrections may not perform a sentence computation that results in more presentence 42 incarceration credit than the person actually served in custody, on the case for which the 43 sentence is being computed, prior to being committed to the custody of the department.

44 “(b) If, during the pendency of the defendant’s sentence, but after the initial 140 days 45 after the defendant’s commitment to the custody of the department, the department re-

1 computes a presentence incarceration credit, and the recomputation results in a projected 2 release date that is different from a previously computed projected release date, prior to the 3 defendant's release the department shall provide written notice of the recomputation to:

4 “(A) The sentencing court;

5 “(B) The prosecuting attorney; and 6 “(C) The defendant and the defendant's trial counsel.

7 “(c) The written notice described in paragraph (b) of this subsection shall include the 8 previously computed release date, the new release date, an explanation for the recomputation 9 and a description of any efforts made by the department to notify any person who requested 10 notifications related to sentencing changes for the person.

11 “(d) When the department recomputes a presentence incarceration credit and the re-12 computation results in a projected release date that is different from a previously computed 13 projected release date, the department shall provide the defendant with information con-14 cerning the process by which the recomputation may be challenged.

15 “SECTION 11. ORS 137.370 is amended to read:

16 “137.370. (1) When a person is sentenced to imprisonment in the custody of the Department of 17 Corrections, the term of confinement therein commences from the day the person is delivered to the 18 custody of an officer of the Department of Corrections for the purpose of serving the sentence exe-19 cuted, regardless of whether the sentence is to be served in a state or federal institution.

20 “(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4) of this section, when a person is sentenced to 21 imprisonment in the custody of the Department of Corrections, for the purpose of computing the 22 amount of sentence served the term of confinement includes only:

23 “(a) The time that the person is confined by any authority after the arrest for:

24 “(A) The crime for which sentence is imposed;

25 “(B) A lesser included or greater inclusive offense of the crime for which sentence was imposed; 26 and

27 “(C) Any other crime constituting a violation of Oregon law within the same county designated 28 by the sentencing court in the judgment as having been committed as part of the same criminal 29 episode as the crime for which sentence was imposed; and 30 “(b) The time that the person is authorized by the Department of Corrections to spend outside 31 a confinement facility, in a program conducted by or for the Department of Corrections.

32 “(3) When a judgment of conviction is vacated and a new sentence is thereafter imposed upon 33 the defendant for the same crime, a lesser included or greater inclusive offense of the crime, or any 34 crime constituting a violation of Oregon law within the same county designated by the sentencing 35 court in the judgment as having been committed as part of the same criminal episode as the crime, 36 the period of detention and imprisonment theretofore served shall be deducted from the maximum 37 term, and from the minimum, if any, of the new sentence.

38 “(4)(a) Unless the court expressly orders otherwise, a person who is confined as the result of 39 a sentence for a crime or conduct that is not directly related to the crime for which the sentence 40 is imposed, or for violation of the conditions of probation, parole or post-prison supervision, shall 41 not receive presentence incarceration credit for the time served in jail toward service of the term 42 of confinement.

43 “(b) Presentence incarceration credit may not be credited to more than one consecutive 44 sentence under one case number unless the court expressly orders, in the judgment, that the 45 court intends that the credit shall apply as a duplicate credit to more than one consecutive

1 sentence, and the duplicate credit may only be applied to those consecutive sentences for 2 which that intent is expressly indicated in the judgment.

3 “(c) Presentence incarceration credit may not be credited to more than one consecutive 4 sentence under different case numbers unless the court expressly orders, in the judgment, 5 that the court intends that the credit shall apply as a duplicate credit to more than one 6 consecutive sentence under different case numbers, and the duplicate credit may only be 7 applied to those consecutive sentences for which that intent is expressly indicated in the 8 judgment.

9 “(d) When the judgment authorizes presentence incarceration credit on one or more 10 sentences under one case number, but does not authorize presentence incarceration credit 11 for other sentences under the same case number that run concurrently, any credit author-12 ized for one sentence shall be applied to all concurrent sentences within the case unless the 13 court expressly orders otherwise, or unless a particular sentence is not otherwise eligible to 14 receive presentence incarceration credit.

15 “(e) Unless expressly ordered by the court in the judgment, a defendant’s computed 16 sentence may not be credited with more presentence incarceration credit under this section 17 than the defendant actually served in custody, on the case for which the sentence is com-18 puted, prior to being committed to the custody of the Department of Corrections.

19 “(5) Unless the court expressly orders otherwise, a term of imprisonment shall be concurrent 20 with that portion of any sentence previously imposed that remains unexpired at the time the court 21 imposes sentence. This subsection applies regardless of whether the earlier sentence was imposed 22 by the same or any other court, and regardless of whether the earlier sentence is being or is to be 23 served in the same penal institution or under the same correctional authority as will be the later 24 sentence.

25 “(6) As used in this section, ‘criminal episode’ has the meaning given that term in ORS 131.505.

26 “SECTION 12. (1) The amendments to ORS 137.320 by section 10 of this 2026 Act apply 27 to sentence computations and recomputations occurring on or after the effective date of this
