Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of this 2026 Act is added to and made a part of ORS 659A.103 to 659A.145.

SECTION 2. The Bureau of Labor and Industries shall create guidance and informational materials to assist employers in complying with the provisions of ORS 659A.112, 659A.118 and 659A.121 concerning reasonable accommodation and to assist employees in understanding the rights and protections provided under those sections. The bureau shall make the materials available to employers on the bureau's website.

SECTION 3. ORS 659A.112 is amended to read:

659A.112. (1) It is an unlawful employment practice for any employer to refuse to hire, employ or promote, to bar or discharge from employment or to discriminate in compensation or in terms, conditions or privileges of employment on the basis of disability.

(2) An employer violates subsection (1) of this section if the employer does any of the following:

(a) The employer limits, segregates or classifies a job applicant or employee in a way that adversely affects the opportunities or status of the applicant or employee because the applicant or employee has a disability.

(b) The employer participates in a contractual or other arrangement or relationship that has the effect of subjecting a qualified job applicant or employee with a disability to the discrimination prohibited by ORS 659A.112 to 659A.139, including but not limited to participating in a relationship with an employment or referral agency, a labor union, an organization providing fringe benefits to an employee of the employer, or an organization providing training and apprenticeship programs.

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.

1 of discrimination on the basis of disability, or that perpetuate the discrimination of others who are
2 subject to common administrative control.

3 (d) The employer excludes or otherwise denies equal jobs or benefits to a qualified individual
4 because the individual is known to have a relationship or association with an individual with a
5 disability.

6 (e) The employer does not make reasonable accommodation to the known physical or mental 7 limitations of a qualified individual with a disability who is a job applicant or employee, unless the 8 employer can demonstrate that the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the opera-
9 tion of the business of the employer.

10 (f) The employer denies employment opportunities to a job applicant or employee who is a
11 qualified individual with a disability, if the denial is based on the need of the employer to make
12 reasonable accommodation to the physical or mental impairments of the employee or applicant.

13 (g) The employer uses qualification standards, employment tests or other selection criteria, in-
14 cluding those based on an individual's uncorrected vision or unaided hearing, that screen out or 15 tend to screen out an individual with a disability or a class of individuals with disabilities unless 16 the standard, test or other selection criterion, as used by the employer, is shown to be job-related
17 for the position in question and is consistent with business necessity.

18 (h) The employer fails to select and administer tests relating to employment in the most effective
19 manner to ensure that when the test is administered to a job applicant or employee who has a dis-
20 ability that impairs sensory, manual or speaking skills, the test results accurately reflect the skills,
21 aptitude or other characteristics of the applicant or employee that the test purports to measure,
22 rather than reflecting the impaired sensory, manual or speaking skills of the employee or applicant.
23 The provisions of this paragraph do not limit the ability of an employer to select or administer tests
24 designed to measure sensory, manual or speaking skills of an employee or job applicant.

25 (i) The employer uses minimum physical requirements set forth in a job posting to screen
26 out individuals with disabilities without connecting the physical requirements to the essential
