SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced. The statement includes a measure digest written in compliance with applicable readability standards.

Digest: If a traffic ticket is sent to a person who sold a car before the traffic offense happened, the old owner may let the court know that they are not required to pay the ticket. (Flesch Readability Score: 62.5).

Provides that, in lieu of making a first appearance for a traffic violation citation, the person who is the previous owner of a vehicle may notify the court that the person has transferred interest in the vehicle and is not liable for the citation.

1 A BILL FOR AN ACT

2 Relating to the transfer of interest in motor vehicles; creating new provisions; and amending ORS
3 153.061.

4 Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

5 SECTION 1. ORS 153.061 is amended to read:

6 153.061. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) or (8) of this section, a defendant who has been
7 issued a violation citation must either:

8 (a) Make a first appearance by personally appearing in court at the time indicated in the sum-
9 mons; or

10 (b) Make a first appearance in the manner provided in subsection (3) of this section before the 11 time indicated in the summons.

12 (2) If a defendant is issued a violation citation for careless driving under ORS 811.135 on which 13 a police officer noted that the offense contributed to an accident and that the cited offense appears
14 to have contributed to the serious physical injury or death of a vulnerable user of a public way, the 15 officer may not enter the amount of the presumptive fine on the summons and the defendant must 16 make a first appearance by personally appearing in court at the time indicated in the summons.

17 (3)(a) Except as provided in this section, a defendant who has been issued a violation citation
18 may make a first appearance in the matter before the time indicated in the summons by one of the 19 following means:

20 (A) The defendant may submit to the court a written or oral request for a trial.

21 (B) The defendant may enter a plea of no contest by:

22 (i) Delivering to the court, a Central Violations Bureau established under ORS 153.806 or a Vi-
23 olations Bureau established by the court under ORS 153.800 the summons and a check or money
24 order in the amount of the presumptive fine set forth in the summons; or

25 (ii) Appearing by electronic or telephonic means and entering the plea with a Central Violations
26 Bureau established under ORS 153.806 or a Violations Bureau established by the court under ORS
27 153.800.

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted.
New sections are in boldfaced type.

1 (b) The entry of a plea under paragraph (a)(B) of this subsection constitutes a waiver of trial
2 and consent to the entry of a judgment forfeiting the presumptive fine.

3 (c) A no contest plea under this subsection is not subject to the requirements of ORS chapter
4 135 relating to the entry of pleas and, upon receipt of the plea, the court may enter judgment
5 against the defendant without taking further evidence.

6 (4) The court may require that a defendant requesting a trial under subsection (3) of this section
7 deposit an amount equal to the presumptive fine established under ORS 153.019 and 153.020 or such
8 other amount as the court determines appropriate if the defendant has failed to appear in any court
9 on one or more other charges in the past. If the defendant does not deposit the amount specified
10 by the court, the defendant must personally appear in court at the time indicated in the summons.
11 The amount deposited by the defendant may be applied against any fine imposed by the court, and
12 any amount not so applied shall be refunded to the defendant at the conclusion of the proceedings.

13 (5) The court may require a defendant to appear personally in any case, or may require that all
14 defendants appear in specified categories of cases.

15 (6) If a defendant has entered a no contest plea in the manner provided in subsection (3) of this
16 section, and the court determines that the presumptive fine is not adequate by reason of previous
17 convictions of the defendant, the nature of the offense charged or other circumstances, the court
18 may require that a trial be held unless an additional fine amount is paid by the defendant before a
19 specified date. Notice of an additional fine amount under this subsection may be given to the de-
20 fendant by mail. In no event may the court require a total fine amount in excess of the maximum 21 fine established for the violation by statute.

22 (7) If a defendant fails to make a first appearance on a citation for a traffic violation, as defined
23 by ORS 801.557, fails to make a first appearance on a citation for a violation of ORS 471.430, or fails
24 to appear at any other subsequent time set for trial or other appearance, the driving privileges of 25 the defendant are subject to suspension under ORS 809.220.

26 (8)(a) A defendant who has been issued a violation citation for a traffic violation and who
27 has already transferred the defendant's interest in the motor vehicle described in the cita-
28 tion is not required to make a first appearance and may instead notify the court, in the 29 manner provided by the Judicial Department, of the transfer when:

30 (A) The citation is issued for the parking, abandoning or operation of the motor vehicle;

31 (B) The defendant transferred interest in the vehicle to another person before the cita-
32 tion was issued;

33 (C) The defendant submitted the notice of transfer of interest to the Department of 34 Transportation as required under ORS 803.112; and

35 (D) Pursuant to ORS 803.117 the defendant is exempt from liability.

36 (b) Upon receiving verification from the Department of Transportation that the person
37 is exempt from liability in accordance with ORS 803.117, the court shall dismiss the citation.
38 The citation may be reissued to the transferee if the name is shown on the notice of transfer
39 form submitted by the defendant under ORS 803.112 and only if the jurisdiction verifies that 40 the transferee appears to have been the owner at the time of the violation.

41 SECTION 2. The amendments to ORS 153.061 by section 1 of this 2026 Act apply to con-
42 duct occurring on or after the effective date of this 2026 Act.
