Declares an emergency, effective on passage.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to data brokers; and declaring an emergency.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. (1) As used in this section, “brokered personal data” and “data broker” have the meanings given those terms in ORS 646A.593.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, a data broker may not sell or otherwise provide brokered personal data to any person or entity if the data broker has reason to believe that the person or entity will use the brokered personal data, directly or indirectly, for purposes related to enforcement of civil law.

(3) This section does not apply to a data broker that is required to provide brokered personal data pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, including a judicial warrant.

(4) The Department of Consumer and Business Services may adopt rules necessary to implement this section.

(5) The department may impose a civil penalty on a data broker for a violation of this section up to the amounts specified in ORS 646A.593 (7).

(6) If a data broker provides brokered personal data about an individual in violation of this section, the individual may bring a civil action against the data broker for economic and noneconomic damages and equitable relief. If a court awards damages or equitable relief to the individual, the court may award reasonable attorney fees to the individual.

(7) Any person may bring a civil action against a data broker that violates this section to enjoin the violation.

SECTION 2. This 2026 Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is declared to exist, and this 2026 Act takes effect on its passage.

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.
