13 body is a party if the complaint has been filed, or if the complaint has not 14 been filed, if the public body shows that such litigation is reasonably likely 15 to occur. This exemption does not apply to litigation which has been con-16 cluded, and nothing in this subsection shall limit any right or opportunity 17 granted by discovery or deposition statutes to a party to litigation or po-

3 potential commercial value, and which gives its user an opportunity to ob-4 tain a business advantage over competitors who do not know or use it.

5 “(3) Investigatory information compiled for criminal law purposes. The 6 record of an arrest or the report of a crime shall be disclosed unless and only 7 for so long as there is a clear need to delay disclosure in the course of a
