HB4134

One of the things that makes Oregon unique is its abundance of wildlife. From the coast to the interior, we have a variety of plants and animals that few other states can match. But maintaining this diversity and abundance takes funding. We must put the effort forth to preserve and protect our most valuable natural resource. This bill would allow us to do so with no negative impact on Oregonians. Our room tax is already one of the lowest in the nation, and raising it to allow us to protect our wildlife would not negatively impact tourism. Please do what is needed to secure this funding.
