

I am opposed to any reduction in the Oregon kicker refund. We are suffering from the high cost of everything and every little bit helps. I am single with no dependents, make around $30,000 a year and cannot afford a home. I need my government to STOP making it harder to survive, to STOP looking for more ways to take more money when they refuse to fix their own budgets and prioritize. Like the tax payers have to.