

Submitter: Erin Moore

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB4028

Limiting the time frame in which insurance companies can claw back money will ultimately lead to more consistent care for clients. Companies will not have to divert as many resources to the auditing process and it will encourage companies to get credentialed with insurances known for intense audits.