

Submitter:

Michelle McCullough

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB4145

This bill represents a significant expansion of government power over a fundamental constitutional right, while doing little to address criminal misuse of firearms. HB 4145 disproportionately burdens law-abiding citizens through excessive fees, delays, vague standards, and expanded surveillance—without demonstrating meaningful public safety benefit.