Chair Nathanson and Members of the House Committee on Revenue,

My name is True Sims. I grew up in Oregon and now live in NYC, I treasure my years being a child in Oregon and enjoying all that the state has to offer in the way nature and the waterways]. I am submitting this testimony in strong support of HB 4134 with the -1 amendment to increase the state lodging tax by 1.25% and help recover Oregon's most vulnerable fish, wildlife, and habitats. If you can come up with a state tax at least increase this state tax...with tourism such an important part of the economy, there is no reason not to increase this tax.

Oregon is an incredibly special place, and the state's identity is so closely tied to its rich natural heritage, including native fish, wildlife, and the habitats that support them. Oregonians' love for the outdoors is known throughout this country and beyond. Oregonians like me are proud of the natural heritage and want to see it thrive for future generations.

Securing long-term dedicated funding to recover our most vulnerable fish, wildlife, and habitats is strongly supported by a majority of Oregonians, and those who had the privilege of growing up in Oregon. I urge you to support this landmark bill, which would dedicate long-term funding to recover Oregon's most vulnerable fish, wildlife, and habitats — all of which are critical for our state's tourism economy. Oregon's robust outdoor tourism economy — accounting for 2.6% of the state's GDP — supports 192,000 jobs and brings in $16 billion in consumer spending. Investing in these resources now will continue to generate more economic opportunities for Oregon's communities in the future.

We cannot have a thriving tourism economy without healthy and abundant fish, wildlife, and the habitats that support them. This legislation would ensure we have both. At a time when the federal government is slashing funds and dismantling policies that protect our vulnerable fish and wildlife and their habitats, Oregon has a chance to set an example and protect our natural heritage. Doing so would make Oregon a national leader and make it clear to Washington D.C. that Oregonians care about their natural heritage, when much of Washington doesn't have a clue!

This is a once-in-a-generation opportunity to protect the natural legacy and rich biodiversity, which make the state of Oregon unique and special. You must pass HB 4134 -1 this legislative session!

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

True Sims
