

Submitter:

Joan Bryant

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB4114

At a time in which the federal government, and agents appointed from other states, are heedlessly and lawlessly trampling on individual rights, causing chaos, harm and even death, our citizens require a means of challenge and redress. This bill provides a path to such protection and restitution, and I whole-heartedly support it.