HB4145

Dear Members of the Oregon Legislature,

I am writing to unequivocally oppose House Bill 4145. This legislation represents another attempt to restrict access to the constitutional rights of the citizens of Oregon. Rather than providing any real benefit, it serves only to further impede those rights. Impediments to Rights: HB 4145 seeks to impose unnecessary restrictions that inhibit the ability of Oregonians to exercise their constitutional freedoms. Such measures are unjustifiable and detrimental to individual liberties.

Call for Rejection: I urge you to reject HB 4145 in its entirety. Oregonians deserve laws that empower them, not legislation that furthers restrictions on their rights.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,?

Josh Turner
