HB4145

I am opposed to this attempt to circumvent the legal process that Measure 114 is going through right now. You cannot fix bad legislation. Taking guns away from law abiding citizens, and/or making the process to obtain and own one harder, will not solve all the problems that some people think it will. This legislation will make it harder for recreational gun owners to purchase and possess weapons for recreational and competitive purposes. The criminals that decide to use guns for illegal purposes will not pay any attention to this or any other legislation when they decide to obtain and use a gun for illegal purposes. Please do not rush to judgement to try to take away our right to legally possess and use guns.
