

Submitter:

Joel Carper

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB4138

Our officers of the law, whatever agency, are not a part of a clandestine operation. With no means to hold wreckles, under-trained, and inexperienced individuals then tragedy will be virtually guaranteed. With little training they won't know how to cope in stressful circumstances. Without accountability, wreckless and gang like reactive mannerisms are the natural outcome.