

Submitter: Lily Wise

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB4138

Law Enforcement Officers are public servants and should be identifiable as such by the public. Hiding their identity from the general public creates distrust, grows resentment, and allows officers to conduct themselves in a violent manner. Hiding behind a mask and unmarked vehicles and uniforms breeds secrecy and removes culpability from their behavior.