Senate Committee on Finance and Revenue

Dear Chair Senator Broadman, Vice Chair Senator McLane and members of the Committee:

Re: Senate Bill 1507

I am opposed to the passage of SB 1507 as it is, as submitted, far too ambiguous. And far too complicated for the average tax payer—such as myself—to suss out just what the heck it may mean to our pocket.

For myself I have little to no confidence left in believing the great state of Oregon has my best interests at heart. If this were so our taxes would be lowered, plain and simple – with no if's and or but's. Unfortunately that is not the way with our legislators. Tax payers continue to be treated simply as a resource for the crisis de jur that legislators never-endingly come up with.

I see this bill as yet another camel's head getting through the door. The rest of him will follow. This bill needs much more clarification.

Sincerely,
Richard Wisner
