

I am an LCSW in Oregon and I oppose one or more aspects of this bill including allowing licensed professionals provide supervision used toward approved hours for licensure between different therapeutic disciplines. For example, MSW's working toward becoming an LCSW hold specific ethical, theoretical and clinical criteria that is different from other disciplines such as becoming an LPC, or LMFT and therefore inappropriate to have other professionals oversee, coach and help hone skills congruent with that specific license.