Hello,

I work as a teacher out on Sauvie Island and am in full support of our local farms being able to have farm stores. I love all of the farms out on the island and all around our state. We regularly take our students to the farms to learn about farming. I know many of them are just fighting to survive, and being able to have a farm store is one way that they can bring people onto the farm to see what they are doing and buy things. We would all be devastated if any of the farms near us had to sell out to bigger corporations because they can no longer stay afloat.

Sincerely,

Amanda Allquist
