as a teacher and someone who works with her vulnerable populations on the daily basis, this absolutely needs to be passed now. We can no longer wait. The people have spoken. They have one of this legislation and it's time to enact it. We live in fear of shootings in public every day I think about it in my classroom on the regular basis about what I would do where I would go, which students of mine might be at risk of doing such a terrible act. These are thoughts and actions that could be helped with the passage of this legislation.
