Chair Nathanson and committee members,

I support 1.25% for wildlife because we live in what I consider to be the most beautiful state in the nation and our forests and varied wildlife should be a point of pride for all Oregonians. Increasing tourism tax would be great way to fund conservation. People visit Oregon to see nature. Conserving it to continue to make revenue from tourism just makes sense.

Because conservation doesn't seem to be that important to many residents and politicians, the least we could do is pass this bill to create a revenue stream to conserve what makes our state so beautiful and unique.

Thank you,

Jessica Campbell
