

Submitter: Jana Svoboda
On Behalf Of:
Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health
Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB4083

The intent makes sense. I worry that it will end up being a further layer of complexity. Most licensed professionals are already going through multiple accrediting processes. CAHQ requires quarterly updates, as do many insurance companies. Credentials may vary by profession but if a licensed individual meets their board credentials, these added redundancies are unnecessary.