

Submitter:

Sarah Rohr

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB4111

A person's immigration status should have no barring on the presumption of guilt. They should be able to have a trial free of reprise or reproach in a melting pot country comprised of generations of immigrants.