HB4134

As a lodging owner, I oppose the state transient lodging tax increase because it raises prices for guests, reduces bookings, and directly threatens the viability of small, locally owned businesses like mine.”

“I’m a local lodging owner, and I oppose this tax increase because it would be passed on to guests, making us less competitive and putting local jobs at risk.”

“As an owner, I oppose the transient lodging tax increase because our margins are already thin, and higher taxes now would discourage travel and hurt our local economy.”

“I oppose the state transient lodging tax increase because, as a small business owner, I see firsthand how even small cost increases can lead to fewer bookings and fewer jobs.”
