I have been going to Topaz Farm for many years mostly because of my six year old granddaughter, but also because I love it there! It's so nice to see families bringing their children and other family members, enjoying all the things that Topaz Farm has to offer.

Having worked in the Restaurant/Hospitality industry for over thirty years, I can say that they are doing a great job! They are constantly striving to better the farm and make the experience fun and enjoyable for everyone! The food is great, the music and farm to plate dinners are unique with their setting and offerings. This is the perfect place to experience nature with animals, agriculture, fresh food and people who really care about others.

These farms need to remain accesible to the public. They serve a greater purpose in educating where our food comes from, how delicious fresh food is, the history of farming, and the enjoyment of the animals that live there.

Thank you for your time, I hope you vote to keep these farms open and available to people.

Sincerely,

Zona Crump
