Hello;

I support the ability of small, family-owned farms to earn a living. With so many family-owned farms being swallowed up by big corporations (both foreign and domestic) because of the cost of running those small farms, it should be celebrated that the small family owned farms are finding ways to stay alive, profitable, and able to stay in their families. My ancestors were farmers, so this feels so important. I love visiting places like The Wooden Shoe Tulip Farm where I can see their lovely tulip fields, find fine wine, and enjoy shopping in their store. Again, I support this legislation to help small, family-owned farms survive and thrive.
