Hello-

I'm in strong favor of making our country safer, making our schools safer, and reducing gun violence. The number one reason for childhood death in the United States is gun violence. We need more protections surrounding guns in this country. This bill (HB 4145) doesn't do anything radical: prolongs times permit issuers can issue a permit, bans large capacity magazines, requires specific firearms training, and so forth. There is nothing in this bill that is a negative. If folks can go to driving school, pass two kinds of tests (and lets face it - most citizens do), they can certainly abide by the regulations in this bill to keep us safer in our communities.
