

Submitter:

Jason Barnes

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB4145

Beyond the reprehensible infringements presented in HB114, this proposed modification presents an even clearer disdain for the average Oregonian. These amendments will disproportionately disadvantage: the less financially sound from exercising their rights with the increase of a fee (one not yet even in effect); those of backgrounds, beliefs, and leanings contrary to the stated arbitrary whims of local law enforcement; any non-law enforcement officer past or present, who are in this motion and its supporters own words and views, less deserving of the rights currently enjoyed by ALL citizens of Oregon regardless of chosen profession; and, any denizen outside of Marion County, who will remain the only Oregonians permitted to challenge the blantant unconstitutionality and illegality of said Measure.

From a proud Oregonian, and on behalf of all other law-abiding Oregonians, shame on the authors and supporters of this proposal in the legislature. I oppose this with the strongest condemnation.