

Submitter:

K Patel

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Revenue

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB4134

The hospitality industry has seen nothing but struggles since the pandemic. Labor shortages, increased business expenses, and less customers. The list goes on. Increasing lodging tax is not resolving any issues. It will eventually close doors to businesses in this state. Businesses across the board are struggling right now and need help. Increasing taxes will only make the problem bigger for them. I oppose HB4134.