

Submitter: Kaz Robertson

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB4088

Every person in the United States should have the right not only to bodily autonomy but for their government to not make legislation that pertains to those rights. All people should be able to decide for themselves the best treatment options between them and their doctor's. Not some legislators that aren't medically informed.