

Submitter:

Lyn McKay-Caudill

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB4088

I can only explain my own experience as what society referred to once as a "Tom boy". I did not play with dogs or cars. I played with tractors, bats, toy guns, hunting, fishing, trapping. I followed my dad everywhere! My hero...I SO WANTED TO BE HIS FIRST BORN SON! I HATED being a girl...looked on as the lower in status. I HATED DRESSES, the church ladies messing with my hair, SHOPPING!...still have trouble finding a "look" that appeals to my female me. WHICH IS WHAT I WAS CREATED TO BE! I THANK GOD IN HEAVEN I DID NOT HAVE A CHOICE GIVEN TO ME! THIS IS EVIL!!! LEAVE YOURSELF BE! LOVE WHO YOU ARE! THAT IS THE PROBLEM! NOBODY IS TEACHING PROPERLY!!! Teach the kids to LOVE THEMSELVES!!!