

Submitter:

Meredith Kleinhenz

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Revenue

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB4125

The kicker is a barrier to funding stability. We should not fault the economists for underpredicting how much revenue is generated in good years by kicking it back. It should be saved for the years that are worse than expected—just like any responsible household financier would do. Please support this bill!