

Submitter:

Anne Rettenberg

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB4088

Hello, I am a healthcare professional and feminist in California. I heard about this bill, and I want to note that federal HIPAA law already protects patient privacy. General information about health trends is necessary for research and public policy. The public has a right to know how many persons are receiving gender treatments and other relevant information sans identifying data on patients.