Statement in Opposition HB4145

Committee Members,

I strongly oppose HB4145. The provisions in this bill offer no remedy for removing guns from the hands of criminals or removing criminals from the streets. As such it would do nothing to prevent crime, or so called gun violence. Instead this bill creates a host of new process crimes, unjust application of the laws, fees and burdens. HB4145 is aimed squarely at some of the most vulnerable populations in the State, victims of violent crime, women, the elderly and the working poor. This bill amounts to another meaningless impedance to honest citizens ability to exercise their constitutionally protected rights.

I urge you to vote No, Oregon deserve better.
