

Submitter:

Ross Taylor

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Education

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB4079

It is essential that our schools protect students and staff from the racist, illegal actions currently carried out by the Department of Homeland Security. When students are afraid to attend school because of their race and parents are afraid to take them to school, this is enforcement of white supremacy. It is clear that this is already happening in school districts across the state.