HB4138

There is no valid reason for any law enforcement to conceal their faces in the practice of their duties. When officers can conceal their identity, they feel they can get away with malfeasance. This is clear to see in recent ICE and Border Control raids. The unjust murder of peaceful protesters and citizens, the brutality of seizing adults and children, flinging them to the ground and beating them -- would they be so emboldened if their identity wasn't concealed?

People in this country should know who is assaulting them and beating them up, violating their civil rights. Name badges, and no masks is a small step in the right direction.
