Dear Chair Broadman, Vice Chair McLane, and Honorable Members of the Senate Committee On Finance and Revenue:

Thank you for your service in the Oregon Senate. I strongly oppose SB 1507.

Oregonians need their hard-earned income to care for their families. We are already overburdened by high taxes, and implementing a sales tax would further encumber households across our state. For many of us, the current tax burden is already oppressive—so much so that it has become difficult to get ahead.

Rather than imposing new taxes, I urge our legislators to prioritize and budget existing tax revenues more wisely. Doing so would help maintain integrity and strengthen public trust in our representatives. This is especially important given how many Oregonians have already voiced strong opposition to previous attempts to raise taxes.

Respectfully,
Heather Hall
