

Submitter:

Robert Muir

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB4114

Americans who peacefully exercise our constitutional rights to assemble and speak in opposition to government policies should not be assaulted or killed. We need civil remedies when federal officers violate our rights. The availability of civil remedies should act as a deterrent against excessive use of force, which in turn should tend to bring greater peace and respect for law enforcement.