Measure, Appointment or HB4153
Topic:

As a small farm owner, I oppose this legislation.

Imposing new rules and regulations that may include fees, permits and permission requirements puts undue burdens on not just the farm owner but local communities as a whole. Enlarging the acreage requirements will disenfranchise existing small farm owners and customers.

Local communities thrive when free trade between local farmers and local customers is less restricted by government overreach that create barriers to commerce.
