

Submitter:

Ruppert Reinstadler

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB4111

Once again, this is a bill to try and legislate selective enforcement of the laws. That's an oxymoron. The legislature makes the laws. They shouldn't be trying to pass laws that directly contradict federal laws. If you don't want to have issues with your immigration status, FOLLOW THE RULES! Pretty simple concept, but seems lost on the majority in the legislature.