

I am sorry, but I cannot approve HB-4127. Abortions have not decreased since it was legitimized in 1970 but has increased. More than 50 million infants have died, and this procedure is being used by young women today as a birth control method, unaware what the future ramifications will be to them mentally or physically. As a mother, grandmother and great grandmother, I oppose HB-4127.