Topic:

I oppose forcing the small farmer out of business. I want farm stands. You know where you drive down a little dirt road to the farmers house. Get out of your car in front of a bin full of ears of corn. Pick how ever many you want. Put your money in an old mailbox(honor system here). Get back in your car knowing you just got the freshest corn and helped a small farmer. It's been done this way for years no need to stop now. Doesn't hurt anyone
