

Submitter: irene gilbert

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Energy and Environment

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB1526

Why are you asking taxpayers to support providing money for start up costs? The developer will then charge utilities for these items. Utilities will then pass these same costs on to ratepayers for the items taxpayers would be forced to subsidize. Aren't utility customers already being gouged enough by rates for electricity that is being subsidized or built to serve large commercial customers?