

Submitter:	Cheyenne Allott
On Behalf Of:	Cheyenne Allott
Committee:	House Committee On Judiciary
Measure, Appointment or Topic:	HB4138

It is critical for law enforcement to show their faces to ensure accountability for misconduct, foster public trust, and maintain legitimacy. Visible identification prevents the dangerous, unauthorized impersonation of officers, distinguishes legitimate law enforcement from criminal actors, and upholds constitutional standards by preventing the use of faceless force.